

The Most Significant Phrasal Verbs

By Behnam Alipour

- 1.To move slowly backward because you are afraid, shocked, etc. back away
- 2. Jim saw him coming and retreated a few steps. back off
- 3. To stop saying that you are right about something and admit that you are wrong back down
- 4. She copied the file onto a disk in case anything went wrong. back up
- 5. To decide not to do something you had agreed to do back out
- 6. To separate something into many pieces break up
- 7. My car stopped working on the freeway. break down
- 8. To use force to get into a building break in
- 9. The hotel was knocked down to make way for a new mall. tear down
- 10. The fire began in an old warehouse. break out
- 11. To stop supplying something to someone cut off
- 12. Helen ripped up his note into tiny pieces. tear up
- 13. To do something less or use less of something cut down
- 14. Spending on education should not be reduced any further. cut back
- 15. To arrange for something to happen at an earlier time than originally planned bring forward
- 16. Are there any other issues that you want to mention during the meeting? bring something up
- 17. To start using something again that was used in the past bring back
- 18. After her parents died, her grandmother raised her. bring someone up
- 19. To reduce the number or amount of something bring down
- 20. To have to deal with a problem or opposition come up against
- 21. Who thought of the idea to hold a bake sale to raise money? come up with
- 22. To become removed from something come off
- 23. He accidentally discovered the letter tucked in a book. come across
- 24. To cause trouble between people come between
- 25. Mrs. Hollings will return May 24th. come back
- 26. To become available for people to buy come out
- 27. Ticket prices are going to be reduced to encourage more people to attend. come down
- 28. To develop or happen come about

SIR IELTS has become the first choice for many students who want to learn English in safe and supporting environment. Make it your first choice as wellWWW.SIRIELTS.COM

- 29. The book was so old that it fell apart in my hands. come apart
- 30. To do something wrong and not be punished for it get away with
- 31. He makes just enough money to make ends meet. get by
- 32. To be allowed to enter a place get in
- 33. I was a little surprised by how well they hit it off. They didn't argue at all. Get on with
- 34. To climb down from somewhere you were on, such as a bus, train, or horse get off
- 35. The walker helps her move around more easily. get about
- 36. To make someone feel unhappy get down
- 37. We meet once a month to talk about the books we've read. get together
- 38. To become healthy again after being sick get over
- 39. Hanson arose late, and breakfast was already over. get up
- 40. To admit that you can't do something and stop trying to finish it give up
- 41. Jenny suddenly felt sick and fainted. pass out
- 42. To be so similar to someone that others think that you are that person pass for
- 43. People complain about the smell the garbage dump produces. give off
- 44. To give something to each person in a group give out
- 45. He died early this morning. pass away
- 46. To give or teach something to people who are younger than you pass down
- 47. Could you return that ladder you borrowed? give back
- 48. To give something you own to someone without selling it to them give away
- 49. Mrs. Olsen handed around a plate of cookies. pass around
- 50. I'm not sure we'll get Brenda to agree with the idea. go along with
- 51. To spend some time away from the house go away
- 52. Catch Billy and tell him to be home by 6:00. go after
- 53. To increase in number or amount go up
- 54. The bomb was timed to explode during rush hour. go off
- 55. To do the opposite of what someone wants you to do go against
- 56. The boat guickly sank. go down
- 57. To leave your house, especially in order to do something you enjoy go out
- 58. The business failed after a year. go under
- 59. To look at or think about something carefully go over

SIR IELTS has become the first choice for many students who want to learn English in safe and supporting environment. Make it your first choice as wellWWW.SIRIELTS.COM

60. To research information in a book, on a computer etc look up 61. Our neighbor's kids are taking care of the dogs for us. look after 62. To think what will happen in the future look ahead 63. Dave watched from the benches. look on 64. To examine something or someone quickly look over 65. Detectives are examining the complaints against him. look into 66. To be excited and happy about something that is going to happen look forward to 67. Thinking about it now, I can see I made some very bad decisions. look back on 68. To think that you are better than someone or something else look down on 69. Watch out! There's a car coming! look out 70. We try to save a little money each month. put aside 71. To suggest an idea, plan or employing a particular person put forward 72. I hate filling out the tax forms, so I delay it as long as possible. Put something off 73. To stop a fire or a cigarette from burning put out 74. He's always criticizing her and insulting her. put down 75. To make someone dislike someone or something, or to make them not want to do something put somebody off 76. They're going to build an office building there. put up 77. To put something in the place where it is usually kept put back 78. The symphony is giving a concert for charity. put on 79. To let someone stay in your house for a short time put somebody up 80. To get up after you have been sitting or lying down stand up 81. V.A. is short for Veteran's Administration. stand for 82. To support someone when they are in trouble stand by 83. He moved back to admire the painting. stand back 84. To be very easy to see or notice stand out 85. Anne said Tom was stupid, but I defended him. stand up for 86. To do someone else's job for them while they are away stand in for 87. To notice and understand what you see, read, or hear take in 88. The company will employ 10 more new factory workers. take on 89. To get control of something or get responsibility for something take over

SIR IELTS has become the first choice for many students who want to learn English in safe and supporting environment. Make it your first choice as wellWWW.SIRIELTS.COM

4

90. Ella wrote down a few notes. take down 91. To separate something into pieces take apart 92. I've just started tennis lessons. take up 93. When a plane moves off the ground into the air take off 94. Steve is like his dad, both in looks and personality. take after 95. To remove something from somewhere or someone take away 96. The jeans didn't fit him; I'll have to return them. take back 97. Switch on the light, will you? turn on 98. To not allow someone to enter a place turn away 99. They left the highway to look for something to eat. turn off 100. To become something different turn into 101. The business makes about $700,000 a year. turn over 102. To make a machine produce more sound, heat etc, using its controls turn up 103. Apparently, they offered him the job, but he refused it. turn down 104. To happen in a particular way turn out 105. She arrived 10 minutes late. turn up 106. To go in the opposite direction to the one you were going in before turn back

All right reserved.

SIR IELTS has become the first choice for many students who want to learn English in safe and supporting environment. Make it your first choice as wellWWW.SIRIELTS.COM